Dear Sir,

Reference to your letter dated 27.08.2001, for copy of Audit Report of our client Uttar Dinajpur Leprosy Society for the years 1995-96 to 1997-98, we like to inform you that as per provision of Chartered Accountants Act, we cannot disclose any information or offer annual accounts which we have obtained and audited during the course of our professional engagement to any person other than our client without their consent or otherwise than as required by any law for the time being in force.

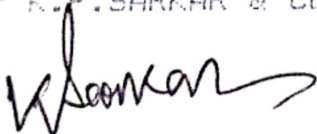

Accordingly, we have no alternative except to disclose our inability to offer the annual accounts for the years 1995-96 to 1997-98, which we have audited as per the terms of our professional engagement as statutory auditor for respective year.

Further, we have given at least three copies of our report together with annual accounts of respective year as stated hereabove to our client immediately on completion of our audit work. So, it will be better to contact with our aforesaid client for copies of audit report and statement of account as required by you.

Please excuse us for our inability for fulfilment of your requirement.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully
